

FILE 16

- a. Scott, J.P. AGGRESSION, The Scientists Library, 1958.
- b. Comfort
Washburn
Sahlins
Freeman
Freedman and Roe
Carpenter
Hinde and Tinbergen
- c. Wallace, Anthony F.C.
- d. Chagnon, N.A.
- e. Halloway, R.L.
- f. Vayda, Andrew P.
- g. Mead, Margaret
- h. Ardrey, etc.
- i. Ardrey, Robert, The Territorial Imperative

File 16 - f ①

Andrew P. Vayda

K 30

Hypothetical Functions of War.

see Vayda Research a function in Primitive War
Peace Research Papers

8. Function of primitive Natural History Dec. 67 pp. 48-50.

18. Functions of primitive war.

1) Hypothesis: war leads out new economic capabilities
lead certain magnitude.

J. S. Sreek, C.E. Camel Pastoralism in North Arabia and the Mammal Camp in, Hunt in Man, Culture and Annals ab. A. Leeds and H. P. Baylis, Am. Ass. of the Adv. of Science 1965

C.S. Sreek (Camel Raiding) of North Arabia: Bedouins
Am. Anthropol. 67: 1132-1150, 1965

M. Heggitt, The Linear System of the MacEnza of New Guinea
Ethnology, 1965.

2) regulation of demographic variables.

3) deterrence (preventive war, <sup>and</sup> fighting for revenge

4) popul. variables: to keep anxiety, tension & hostility from exceeding certain limits

9) flight from grief H.H. Turner, High Primitive War, Univ. of
S-Carolina Press, Columbia 1949

1) expression of <sup>the</sup> anger caused by a disturbance of the internal harmony. C.H. Wedgwood Some Aspects of Warfare in Melanesia Oceania 1:5-'33, 1933

2) direct intra societal hostility with substitute objects

L.A. Coser, The Function of Social Conflict, Free Press, Glencoe
1956

Vayda

2

79. Combination of physical, demographical and economic variables; they are "all being regulated, with the regulation of one variable being dependent upon the regulation of another."

R. S. L. Farin, Social Disorganization 2. W. Ronald (New York 1955)