

187. Ficino: Philosophy ↔ Religion
" Platonism = of divine origin = humanistic assumption

190. All natural desires are related to God

194. Each species preserves always the same kind of motion

199. End of intelligence & will is universal for it and good

201. Effort of the soul directed toward this end; that the soul will become the whole universe. By natural instinct every soul strives to know all truth of the intellect as to every all good things of the world;

208. Man = Prometheus; Reason = fire; Eagle's talons = talons of inquiry → return to full wisdom

209. We live outside the order of nature - will be returned to it

211. Soul does continue to live in its own body (make metaphors)

219: was in Pico's oration; emphasis on freedom of man - not fixed place in hierarchy of being - but kind of separate world

220: Universality of truth

220: Man goes his distinctness to his freedom

221: emphasis on man; perhaps only photographical idea of man

224: Not the fixed state - ...
