

N.A. Chagnon.K29

Yanomamö Social Organization & Warfare
 in: Natural History, No. 67 pp 44-48

44. Myth: Normal children. Leukemia Sakinae, 1st time, blood came ^{spilled} down to earth as immediately clayed out the first man. "It is because man came from the flood of Pento (moon) & he is inherently a water creature. See the explanation given by the Yanomamö." !
44. But cowards & women came from one of the legs of first man.
44. - Sneak, stranger pushing around weaker. Many display fear at a relative's lameness beekeeping - and punishment of wives.
44. Young boys are taught to strike, and their fathers.
45. Infanticide, more girls.
45. Strong competition for women; extra marital affairs → fighting
45. Village ruled by waiters (peace ones)
46. each individual has an animal counterpart. Rabbits live in some distant part of the jungle. The actual lives are coexistence & coexistence.

