350. for an external frustration to become polygenic
an internal frustration must be added to it.
(Dollard!)

350. Powers & Oppenheimer found from L. Libin's case that are "the non sexual instinctual forces". He then went to refer to the ego instincts polygenic conflict between ego instincts and the sexual instincts.

355 'sexual instincts vs. self preservation instincts.
Freud speak about in his last work of the ego as repressing force.

356. mental activities directed toward achieving pleasure
or avoiding pain

358 Freud tried to keep ego & libido (narc. lib.)
for ego interest or self preservation instinct

later: B.P.P.: narcissistic libido = self preservation instinct.
